VOL. III. NO. 239.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CTS.

ABUSE DEFEATS MAY W.

Denizens of the Harlem ring received a drubbing Wednesday that they will long remember. After the defeat of Travis in the first race five straight favorites won. The public had one of its real good days. It has had its share of them lately, because the Harlem racing is true and the general management of the contention sharp and correct.

That good youngster Daily Racing Form started the public ball rolling. He was fancied, for natural reasons, and backed from 7 to 5 to 6 to 5 and less. The serviceable son of old Ella Blackburn got off third and was always within reach of the leaders to the straight. Then Master Gray cut him loose, and the colt took command and won with something to spare from Ruskin. The race was run in 1:01½, and considering that Daily Racing Form ran away a quarter of a mile in a false break, the race was better than his first. He has won two out of three.

Meadowthorpe had his old conqueror, Dr. Sheppard, to beat in the third race, a mile dash. Tommy Burns was on his back in place of Tommy Murphy. The ring offered 1 to 2 against Meadowthorpe. It was an extra good price. The Schorr colt was off third, but went to the front on the bend and leading all the way won as he pleased.

The fourth race, a five furlong dash, was a sparkler in a racing way and one of the heaviest betting affairs of the meeting. The May W party had the Montana filly keyed up to concert pitch and bet heavily upon her. Opening at 7 to 5, May W's odds were beaten down by the press of money to evens. Abuse and the Foster party were also as ready as the Montana party. Sloan was to have ridden Abuse, but at the last moment he was taken down and Tommy Burns substituted. Abuse broke in front and running the first three furlongs in thirty-five seconds, had a lead of nearly three lengths over May W. In the stretch Burns steadied the Foster sprinter and at the wire was three lengths to the good.

After scoring three straights the public was full of confidence and loyally backed the honest Buck Massie at 7 to 10 and less for the fourth race as though it had been run. The great son of Hanover won in his buoyant and speedy way. Then the average $2 bettors went at the ring like lions with far larger sums about W C T. He won, and the triumph was complete.

INGLESIDE'S TEN EARLY STAKES.

The first lot of stakes of the Ingleside track (Pacific Coast Jockey Club) close Friday, October 15. Horsemen should remember this. There are ten events, all to be run before January 2. The meeting begins November 1. The conditions of the ten events are broad and up to date and the payments for eligibility low. Their full conditions are displayed on the back page of DAILY RACING FORM.

Winner—Ch. f. 3, by Loyalist—Cantolet.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won well in hand; the next four were driving. Loyaletta was the best. She had the speed of the party and also clear sailing. She is a fast filly but cannot stand interference. Forfeit, well played by her stable showed a sudden improvement. Had she not been interfered with on the back stretch she would have been a keen contender. Throw Travis' race out. He was pocketed, badly interfered with and almost thrown over the fence. Warren Point got a running start. Al Lone showed some speed. Senator Morrill was badly interfered with and had to pull up. The wind was too high for Senator Quay to do his best. Scratched—Little Ocean, 105; Mrs Murray, 102; Dejure, 107; Barnato, 105; Tidiness, 102; Tin Cup, 102; Aim, 102; Santa Cruz, 107; Marie Woodlands, 107.

					Time	24	3-c	49	1-11

Time, 24, 36½, 49, 1:01½.
Winner—B. c. by Burlington—Ella Blackburn.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden; second driving to the limit; third eased up on the end after an early drive. Daily Racing Form was the best. He is a consistent colt and will beat better ones. The colt now has a sore mouth and has to be raced with a rubber bit. That was the cause of his running away with Gray a quarter of a mile in a false break. Watch Lottie Burns. She is a promising filly and with clear sailing would have given the winner a hard race. She was badly messed about at the start and pulled almost to a stand-still. Ruskin did his best. About five-eighths in 1:02 is his mark. Balverso was raced off her feet the first half. Judge Napton had speed, but could not stand the pace. Scratched—Whirmantiline, 103.

1966 THIRD RACE—1 Mile. Purse $400. All Ages. Allowances.

Time, 24½, 50, 1:02½, 1:15½, 1:41.
Winner—B. c. 3, by Kantaka—Baby.
Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won eased up; second driving to the limit; the other two handily. Meadowthorpe was pounds the best and showed plainly he should have won his last race with Sheppard. Burns waited along with Meadowthorpe until the three furlong pole and then came away from the others as though they were tied. It was a procession at the finish. Tranby was outclassed and in the race to be beaten. Watch him with his own.

1967 FOURTH RACE—5-8 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Time, 23, 35, 47, 1:00.
Winner—B. c. 4, by Plevna—Abukru.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly. The others were driving. Abuse was the best and stood May W on her head the first half. He was a grand horse today. May W was played by her party and ran her race. It was a good one too. Only the first two were contenders, Chenille acted badly at the post and sulked most of the way. C. Sloan was scheduled to ride Abuse but at the last moment T. Burns was substituted. Scratched—Irene Woods, 109.

1968 FIFTH RACE—1 Mile and 70 Yards. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Owners' Handicap.

Time, 24½, 49½, 1:02, 1:15, 1:40½, 1:44½.
Winner—Br. h. 5, by Hanover—Triana.
Off first break to a good start. Won ridden out on the end; the other two were driving. Burns eased Buck Massie almost to a walk at the sixteenth pole, but had to ride him again to stall off The Swain's strong rush. Buck Massie was far the best. He was at one time fifteen lengths in front of his field. Woods cleverly took The Swain back after going a half and eased him for his final spurt in the stretch. Overweights—David Tenny, 2½ pounds.

Winner—B. g, 4, by Montrose—George H.
Post 15 minutes. Start good. Won handily. It was a long hard drive for the place. W C T had the foot of the party. He got off running and always had clear sailing. He is a real useful selling plater at three quarters of a mile. Sea Robber ran a good race. So did Uncas, considering the trouble he had. He got a running start, was shut off on the back stretch and also again on the turn. He finished fast and will bear watching. Vitrola did well under bad handling. Plumeria's speed was not lasting.
Scratched—Mamie Callan, 94.
